

California Native Grassland Association
Style Sheet for Grasslands Journal (Updated Dec 3, 2018)

For general style, the journal follows the Chicago Manual of Style.

General submission deadlines

Winter - Nov 15

Spring - Feb 15

Summer - May 15

Fall - Aug 15

Length

Manuscript should be approximately 1500 words or less. Original research articles be up to 3000 words, when necessary. Longer pieces may be split across issues, if appropriate and feasible.

Font

Times New Roman, 12 pt

Spacing

Double-spaced lines.

Single periods after sentences.

One single spaces between sentences.

Paragraph formatting

No paragraph formatting.

Numbers, Units, Measurement

Spell out non-measurement numbers from one to nine and use numerals for 10 and above. Use numerals for measurements and abbreviate units when reported with a number (e.g., 3 g, 11 ft/lbs) whether under or over 10. Units of time do not need to be abbreviated when used in the flow of a sentence (e.g., “We studied the site for eight weeks,” or “The plants were surveyed 21 days after planting.”)

Case

All titles, headings, and other text in upper/lower case (no all uppercase lettering).

Authors

Include a byline with author name(s), title(s), and affiliation(s).

Also include biographical information (one or two sentences) for each author.

Species and Common Names

- Include the species name in parentheses at the first mention, and use the common name thereafter.
- Botanical nomenclature: For species and common names, follow the latest edition of the Jepson Manual at <http://ucjeps.berkeley.edu/interchange.html>.

Figures, Graphs, Illustrations, Tables

Please send all figures or graphics to be included with the document as .jpg or .tif attachments.

- Photos: Grasslands requires a minimum of 300 dpi photo quality. This generally requires photos of 3 megapixels (for a half page or smaller) or 6 megapixels (for full page cover). Megapixel settings are changed on your camera. For information about photos that are not taken with a digital camera, please email us at grasslands@cnga.org.
- Figures and tables: All figures must be clear in black and white.
- Captions: All figures or graphics to be included with the document must be accompanied by a caption and appropriate attribution to the author(s).

In-text Citations

- For in-text citations of works by one author, use the author's last name followed by the year (Jones 2004).
- For in-text citations of works by two authors, use "and" to separate the authors' last names (Doe and Johnson 2005).
- For in-text citations of works by three or more authors, use the first author's last name followed by "et al." (Smith et al. 2007).
- For multiple citations, separate citations with a comma, and list citations in date order beginning with the oldest (Jones 2004, Doe and Johnson 2005, Smith et al. 2007).

References

- Include a References Cited section if you are citing the works of others.
- Include all author names there unless there are more than eight co-authors; otherwise, use the "et al." format (Smith et al.) and follow the format below for the remainder of the reference.
- List the full name of journals with no abbreviations.
